

THE COUPLE

Mackensie Uhlán (35 and an engagement manager) and Tyler Moeller (43 and a CEO) love any excuse to rock a costume.

THEIR WEDDING, THEIR WAY

THE MAIN EVENT

Mackensie and Tyler welcomed loved ones to Governor's Island for a wedding weekend full of live entertainment—from carnival dancers to their own showstopping number.

BY LOUIS BARAGONA PHOTOGRAPHY BY EMMA CLEARY PHOTO AND VIDEO

THE IDEA Originally, Mackensie and Tyler wanted a destination wedding. "We love to travel and spent months looking overseas," Mackensie says. "In the end, we wanted our family there, so we decided on our home, the Big Apple." The pair honored their love of dressing up and getting down by planning a Roaring Twenties-style bash with a few modern additions: LED robots, aerialists and more.

GRAND FINALE Tyler and Mackensie rocked vintage-inspired outfits for a choreographed dance complete with cryo gun.

SWEET SURPRISE

Mackensie and Tyler skipped a traditional cake cutting in favor of Mackensie hopping out of an eight-foot-tall prop cake, Gatsby style.

SET SAIL

After the wedding ceremony, the newlyweds jetted off on a sunset cruise. Mermaid performers and a New Orleans-style jazz band kept guests dancing on the historic ship.

THE TEAM

CEREMONY SITE NYC Public Walkway, New York City RECEPTION SITE The Collective Retreat, Governors Island, New York City PHOTOGRAPHY Massimo and Nazar/Emma Cleary Photo and Video PLANNING Chelsea Wajswol EVENT & FLORAL DESIGN Birch Event Design GOWNS Stephen Yearick, Bridal Reflections, New York City MENSWEAR Custom, Kamaal Kadri Bespoke, New York City PROP CAKE House of Yes

